

End-to-end case management

Qinecsa is a leading global provider of end-to-end pharmacovigilance solutions. Our team of pharmacovigilance specialists leverage technology solutions to deliver all aspects of global case management for both clinical and post-marketing products.

Manage high volumes of safety reports, more efficiently

Streamline pharmacovigilance processes through automation and reduce follow up to yield lower cost per case.

Standardized Global Data

Acknowledging the challenges faced by client from multiple intake sources, Qinecsa have developed technology to support more consistent, higher quality global pharmacovigilance data.

Generate meaningful safety insights, faster

Implement a centralized solution leveraging best-in-class technology and people to increase data visibility and drive faster signal management.

Solution

Qinecsa

End-to-end case management

© 2022 Qinecsa Solutions.
All Rights Reserved.

Digitally enabled intake

A unified solution supporting standardize global data capture from all intake channels.

Enhanced case processing

Leverage technology to standardize safety reports and reduce errors, enabling Qinecsa PV experts to focus on higher values / high risk case processing steps.

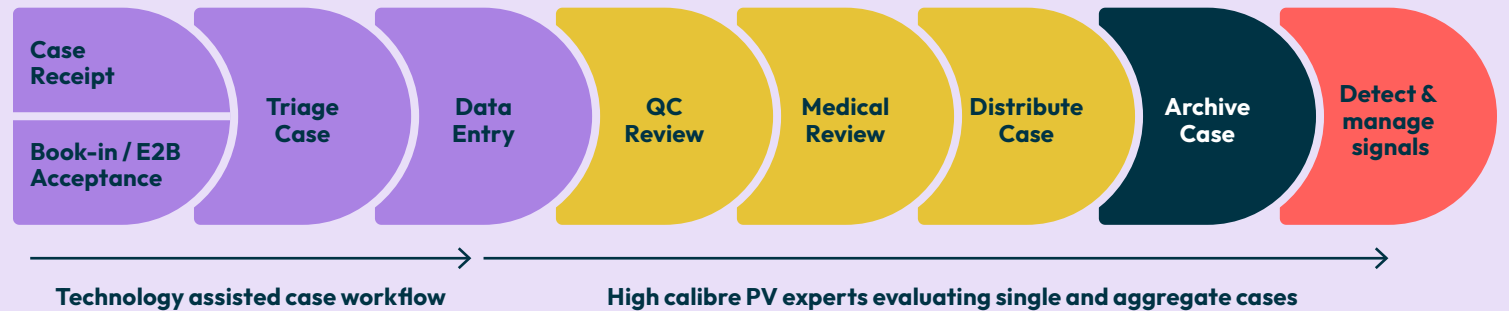

Higher quality safety reports

Proven delivery of timely and accurate case reports with KPIs at the highest level of client expectations.

Exceptional standard of medical review

Qinecsa physicians review higher quality data to support both single and aggregate case evaluation enabling early detection of safety signals.

High caliber pharmacovigilance experts leveraging best-in-class technology to conduct highly efficient case management

Find out more qinecsa.com Contact us contact@qinecsa.com