

Signal & risk management

Qinecsa provides tailored signal detection and risk management services for clinical and commercial products, including associated benefit-risk management activities. With diverse therapeutic expertise and industry-leading technology, our team support the breadth and depth of signal evaluation and risk management obligations.

Increase safety profile accuracy

Expert team of qualified physicians, including epidemiologists and clinical physicians along with biostatisticians, to interpret data in line with the complexities of safety assessment.

Limit regulatory review cycles

Global experience of benefit-risk assessments to ensure reduced regulatory comment cycles across regions.

Service flexibility

Adaptable models to support both evolving and mature safety systems according to client needs.

Service

Qinecsa

Signal & risk management

© 2023 Qinecsa Solutions.
All Rights Reserved.

Robust end-to-end workflow

Comprehensive signal detection and management services including triage, validation, prioritization, assessment, and recommendation for actions.

Tailored approach

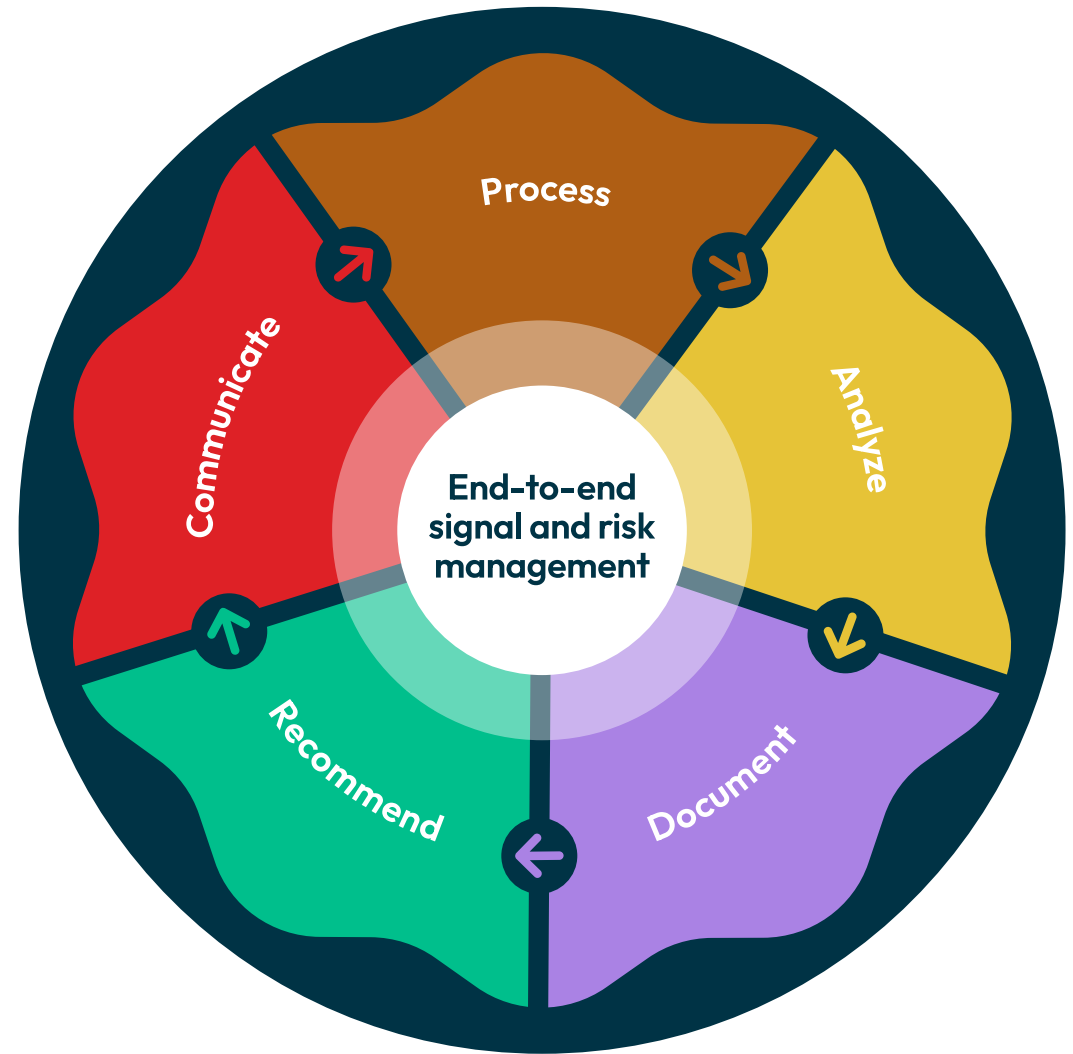

Combination of technology and expert services to adapt workflows to client and compound needs based on target population, product profile, etc.

Unrivalled expertise

Highly qualified team to ensure potential signals are investigated to clear and concise conclusion, protecting patients and consumers.

Breadth of service

Diverse skillsets to support all signal management activities including benefit-risk, risk minimization management and Regulatory communications.

Find out more qinecsa.com Contact us contact@qinecsa.com